Glorious houses in GREECE, PROVENCE and the ENGLISH COUNTRYSIDE

The Wiltshire garden of SOPHIE CONRAN and the joys of SLOW TRAVEL

DINING AREA A table made by local craftspeople at Atelier de la Boiserie is partnered by chairs from Chaises Lacroix in Vallabrègues. The dresser was designed by the architects to house an extra sink. READING ROOM 'It's a folly really; very Cocteau,' says Victoria of this space designed by Jean Cocteau in the mid 20th century. The rattan furniture was sourced by Nicolas Wamin in L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue

BATHROOM Farrow & Ball's deep red 'Incarnadine' on the ceiling picks up on the distinctive coral light made by a local artist, which Victoria says 'gives a lovely glow after dark'. TWIN ROOM Antoinette Poisson's 'Oiseaux et Feuillage' wallpaper on the sloped ceiling, with a matching pendant light, and Namay Samay's 'Gamcha' gingham in mayan on the beds gives it a quintessentially French look
